STAFF’S BEST OF 2018

AROUND THE LIBRARY

The wifi Hotspots were a huge hit this year. Patrons loved them and took them all over the country on their summer vacations.

– Kristen Stroh, Head of Reference

I love helping patrons in The Booth record themselves singing or playing an instrument, preserving memories that can be passed on to future generations, or giving voice to podcasts. It is one of the many unique things that happen here and most importantly, it is fun and easy to do!

– Chris DeCristofaro, Technology Librarian

I loved using the laser engraver this year to create all kinds of customized gifts from anniversary to retirement. There’s nothing better than giving a personalized present!

– Virginia Pfeiffer, Head of Circulation

It gives me pleasure to take guests visiting from Montauk to NYC on a ‘highlights’ tour of our amazing facility, including the Local History Room with its recently donated collection of memorabilia, featuring antique radios.

– Anne Marie Tognella, Community Services

I was inspired to start my own raised bed garden this summer from watching the gardens grow in Children’s Services.

– Laura Saladino, Children’s Librarian

I’m loving the newest addition to the library, Discovery Grove. I wish it was here when my kids were younger!

– Sandra Bartalis, Account Clerk

BOOKS AND MOVIES

I’ll Be Gone in the Dark

by Michelle McNamara

(audiobook on OverDrive)

True crime with a splash of memoir is the best way to describe McNamara’s account of the Golden State Killer. Through her journey she is able to befriend retired detectives and novice investigators to paint a chilling picture of the fear Californians lived in during the 1970s and 1980s.

– Alexandra Mercado, Reference Librarian

Victorians Undone

by Kathryn Hughes

Scholarly yet readable and highly entertaining, this book focuses on the human body in the Victorian era, reinterpreting history from the inside out. Short case histories tell the stories of five individuals, or rather parts of them, from Charles Darwin’s beard to George Eliot’s hand.

– Lauren Gilbert, Head of Community Services

The 7½ Deaths of Evelyn Hardcastle

by Stuart Turton

In this brilliantly written hybrid of Groundhog Day and Clue, Aiden Bishop is destined to witness the murder of Evelyn Hardcastle every night unless he is able to find her killer. Was it the butler in the library, the mysterious plague doctor who has been lurking in the shadows, or someone else?

– Bernadette Piccione, Reference Librarian

The Girlfriend

by Michelle Frances

(audiobook on OverDrive)

This debut psychological thriller is gripping and glamorous. Daniel comes from a wealthy family and is beginning medical school when he meets Cherry, a girl who has always thought she deserved more from life. His mother’s intuition is not to trust Cherry and both women will do almost anything to be the ultimate winner of his affection.

– Alexandra Mercado, Reference Librarian

Eating My Way Through Italy

by Elizabeth Minchilli

Minchilli’s latest book is an outstanding culinary guide that will take you off the beaten path into Nonna’s kitchen. Her detailed description of the many out of the way towns, restaurants, and regional dishes will have you salivating in no time. Recipes and lodging recommendations included.

– Anne Marie Tognella, Community Services

The Great Believers

by Rebecca Makkai

This beautifully written and heart-wrenching novel, featuring all too human characters in interwoven storylines, brings multiple eras vividly to life, especially Chicago in the 1980s in the midst of the AIDS crisis.

– Lauren Gilbert, Head of Community Services

Paddington 2

There is no better word in the English lexicon than “delightful” to describe this sweet and heartwarming tale of a marmalade-loving bear living with an English family.

– Jamie Edrich, Reference Librarian

REEL REBELS FILM & DISCUSSION

78/52: Hitchcock’s Shower Scene

Tuesday, December 4 • 6:00pm

This documentary takes a deep dive into one of the most celebrated scenes in movie history. Using 78 camera setups and 52 edits in 3 minutes, Psycho’s shower scene broke taboos, influenced pop culture, and changed the landscape of filmmaking. Directed by Alexandre O. Philippe. Starring Guillermo del Toro, Jamie Lee Curtis, and Peter Bogdanovich. (2017, NR-1:31)

SATURDAY FOREIGN FILM

Chicken with Plums

Saturday, December 8 • 1:30pm

After a renowned musician breaks his beloved violin and cannot find a suitable replacement, he decides to confine himself to bed and await death, until his wife plies him with delicacies to help him find a reason to live again. French with English subtitles. Directed by Marjane Satrapi & Vincent Paronnaud. Starring Mathieu Amalric, Edouard Baer, Maria de Medeiros. (2012, PG13-1:30)

SPECIAL FILM PRESENTATION

Love Actually
