Great Decisions Discussion Series
Topic: Horn of Africa
Monday, July 18 • 7:00pm
Program code: SAAGD7
Since the early 1990s the U.S. has monitored the Horn of Africa due to security concerns. Internal instability, weak governments, regional rivalries, and a lack of development have resulted in an environment conducive to terrorism. Can the U.S. protect its national interests while mitigating the dangerous conditions in the region? Sachem resident and long-time Great Decisions participant Peter Hanson will lead this monthly discussion series of global hot topics. Pick up a copy of the readings at the Welcome Desk. Great Decisions, a national, civic-education program on U.S. foreign policy and international issues, is sponsored by the Foreign Policy Association.

Poetry: Verse in Person
Tuesday, July 26 • 7:00pm • Program code: SAAVIP7
This prayer begins with a buoy borne on the white backs of waves.
—Linda Opyr from “Where the Prayer Begins”
Each month a guest poet presents a reading after which the audience is encouraged to share original works at an open mic. This month’s guest reader is Linda Opyr, Poet Laureate of Nassau County, 2011-2013. Ms. Opyr has authored six collections of poetry, including If We Are What We Remember: New and Selected Poems. Her poems have appeared in numerous anthologies, journals, magazines, and newspapers, including The Hudson Review, The Atlanta Review, and The New York Times. Special thanks to Jeanette Klimszewski and Mankh, members of the Performance Poets Association, for co-hosting this series.
